

S&P GLOBAL PLATTS GLOBAL ENERGY AWARDS

Chief Executive of the Year Award Nomination Form

Chief Executive of the Year

This award is open to business leaders that head up an entire corporation or organization, CEOs, Presidents, Directors General, Executive Administrators and Executive Managing Directors among others. Leaders of business operations or functions should apply under Rising Star Individual.

For a firm's top executive to win, he or she needs to have consistently demonstrated clarity of vision, judgment and motivational skills that transform and empower organizations. The winner will be a leader who is highly respected by both peers and competitors, admired and followed by employees, trusted by investors and welcomed by the community.

This award is for recognition of courage, perseverance, dedication, ethics and the ability to bring about real change for the better at a company level, in the industry as a whole, and in the lives of employees.

Entries should focus on a leader's strategy and objectives, clear communication and implementation and ultimate outcome substantiated by demonstrable progress toward his/her vision.

Judges will consider a leader's entire track record, with particular attention focused on that individual's accomplishments since January 2018.
