

S&P GLOBAL PLATTS GLOBAL ENERGY AWARDS

Corporate Deal of the Year Award Nomination Form

Corporate Deal of the Year

Open to corporates, or core companies of the energy and chemical complex; primarily oil and gas companies, power producers and utilities, system operators, midstream and consumer markets.

Investment firms should apply for Financial Investment of the Year.

As frontiers across the energy landscape move and morph, opportunities to grow and transform businesses are abundant. In recognizing the successful closure of a new energy project, asset buyout or full company merger or acquisition, Judges want to understand the overall strategic significance and impact of each submitted transaction in an era of opportunity, created by uncertain markets and interdependence.

Winning entries might focus on overcoming challenges to complete the deal, innovative financial engineering and motivating agreement across multiple stakeholders.

In the interests of judging its success, judges will consider any investment that has closed since January 2018.

This award is for a specific investment – be it a merger, acquisition, financial restructuring or divestiture – completed in the given time frame. Entire investment portfolios should not be submitted.
