

Corporate Award – Green Initiatives Nomination Form

Corporate Award – Green Initiatives

This category welcomes heavy energy consumers, including retail, food & beverage, information, social media, sports and entertainment, data and technology, automotive, manufacturing, airlines, OEM and banks among other industries.

Large energy users are increasingly embracing efficiency and renewable energy as means to protect a threatened environment while also serving their energy needs. Making the most of existing power production through co-generation and its offspring; streamlining processes, procedures and technology to maximize efficiency; and tapping into renewable energy sources can serve the interests of both business and the environment. This award recognizes savvy, sustained and robust commitments to energy efficiency and minimizing environmental footprints.

Judges will consider energy conservation initiatives run within large corporations seeking to optimize energy use, improving efficiency and reducing environmental impact. In addition to reduction per unit or other key metrics, the judges also want to see comprehensive improvements and percentages of overall results.

Judges will focus exclusively on performance and achievements since January 2018.
