

S&P GLOBAL PLATTS GLOBAL ENERGY AWARDS

Financial Investment of the Year Award Nomination Form

Financial Investment of the Year

Eligible for this award are financial entities such as private equity, venture capital funds, hedge funds, investment management, investment banks, infrastructure funds, pension funds, sovereign wealth funds and family offices.

Traditional energy companies who merged or acquired other energy companies should apply under Corporate Deal of the Year.

Investment firms expect to continue astride in 2019 as well as seek opportunities and return across the energy landscape. This award aims to celebrate the rigorous analysis and unrelenting focus on delivering superior risk-adjusted returns that capital market firms bring to the energy industry. Entries should address a deal's overall impact and influence on other transactions and market participants calculated or projected return, and nuances that made the deal uniquely successful.

In the interests of judging its success, judges will consider any investment that has closed since January 2018.

This award is for a specific investment – acquisition, financial restructuring or divestiture – completed in the given time frame. Entire investment portfolios should not be submitted.
