This conference is the only event on the market geared towards the niche community of gas storage developers and associated sectors that these developers do business with, i.e. gas distribution, power generation, LNG, NGLs, and project finance/M&A.

Our S&P Global Platts Gas Storage Outlook Conference will help storage/pipeline operators, LDCs, traders, financiers, and other developers/customers/investors of storage examine the full range of market, regulatory, and strategic issues surrounding the use, operation, and development of gas storage in today’s environment.

Caribbean Energy Conference

January 29-31, 2020
Wyndham Grand Rio Mar | Rio Grande, Puerto Rico

This major regional conference attracts a high level audience of power and energy producers, buyers, traders, regulators, and others involved in building a new energy infrastructure. Over 300 attendees each year.

“This was my first time attending a Platts event and I found it highly educational as well as entertaining, not to mention the excellent networking opportunities. The venue was amazing, everything was on time and well executed. I would recommend the Platts Caribbean Energy Conference to anyone interested in utilities, supply chain or fuel markets.” – Robert Tatum, OfReg

Infrastructure investment is a key challenge facing the United States, and offers vast new opportunities for rebuilding and transforming the country.

This important new event from S&P Global Platts brings together the leading players involved in infrastructure, from the public and private sectors, finance, investments, government, and industry.

This event meets in Washington DC, and includes perspectives from federal and state governments, and private companies across a wide range of industries. We will build on the experience and expertise of S&P Global Platts in energy and power finance, as well as S&P Global Ratings, which includes a global infrastructure practice, and the S&P Global Infrastructure Index.

Some of the key areas we will cover:

- Electric power generation and transmission
- Renewable energy growth and integration into the grid
- Midstream energy including pipelines, refining, and LNG
- Transportation including ports and highways
- Social investment including hospitals and government buildings
- Utilities including electricity, water and natural gas

Bunker & Residual Fuel Conference

June 22-23, 2020
St. Regis Houston, Texas

Hear the latest on bunker and marine fuels and the impact of the IMO low-sulfur rule, coming into effect in January 2020. Attendees at the Houston conference come from all over North and South America and the Caribbean, and include shipping companies, refiners, bunker suppliers, traders, and others in the industry.

“A wide range of perspectives that broadened my viewpoint. I came home with a long list of topics, which is how I judge the quality of a conference!”

Since 1999, The S&P Global Platts Global Energy Awards honor organizations and individuals who are dedicated to achieving excellence in the energy industry. Given the key role the industry plays in the global economy and its impact on society, we believe that those who are committed to addressing the industry’s most pressing issues and uncovering its greatest opportunities deserve high praise for their positive contributions. Widely recognized as the Oscars of the energy sector, the Global Energy Awards are presented annually in New York at a gala black-tie event.

About S&P Global Platts

Founded in 1909, S&P Global Platts is the leading independent provider of information and benchmark prices for the commodities and energy markets. Customers in over 150 countries look to our experience in news, pricing and analytics to deliver greater transparency and efficiency to markets.

Today, across markets, the need for actionable insights is critical, because every decision is only as good as the intelligence used to make it. That is why we are committed to a common purpose: we provide the intelligence that is essential for companies, governments, and individuals to make decisions with conviction.

The spglobal.com/platts website welcomes in excess of 2.6 million users a year from across the globe.

About our conferences

Platts conferences offer an opportunity to hear from industry specialists and meet with key players and decision makers across the globe. Our calendar of 50+ events attract around 10,000 delegates annually, across 10 different commodities.

Feedback from delegates indicate the key reasons to attend Platts conferences are:

- Networking and looking for business opportunities
- Finding out what is going on in the market
- Learning about new developments

As well as hosting a series of established, industry recognized events throughout the year, by harnessing Platts industry specialists (and audience reach) a number of new events have been chosen and scheduled for the 2019 calendar.

There are a variety of sponsorship packages available that can be tailored to suit your particular requirements and budget, so please do not hesitate to contact one of our business development executives to discuss the options available.
